Faith Statement – May 30, 2010

Hello, my name is Zack Zehner. Jesus Christ is my belief in who I am and what I am. I believe that Jesus is the creator of everything and will come again. God has given me the gift of playing guitar. I started to play the guitar when I was eight, so I have been playing for six years. My family has supported my faith development through getting me baptized on September 25, 1995. I plan to use this gift for entertaining myself through life. I want to be an electrical engineer to help out our community because I love to work with my hands and electricity. I recently had a friend who passed away, Kara Pollard. She is the reason I am smiling today. She was 16 years old and a junior at McDowell High School. She is who I want to thank for keeping me happy with her comforting laughs and smiles. She passed away unexpectedly April 28th early in the morning.
